

Here I noted the approximate location of the fence line and estimated the area with high lead concentrations from the kriged map.

If you look on the next slide, I tried to super-impose the sampling map over the aerial to figure out where the previous samples were located. I then drew the grubbing area over this for the LSA

Wilcox

Grubbing Map 2

